

In order to minimize the spread of the Coronavirus (COVID-19) and protect those most vulnerable, we are following the recommendations of local, state, and federal authorities by suspending in-office meetings and appointments.

This action complies with Executive Order No. 20-12 issued by the Governor of Oregon. In-office meetings will recontinue when permissible. Your safety and well-being are our highest priority. We will remain diligent and ask that you do the same during this challenging time.

Clients: Please submit documents via the ONVIO Client Center whenever possible. Refer to the guidelines in our correspondence dated March 16, 2020 and contact us if any questions. Thank you.
